FISCAL ANALYSIS

Assumptions:

1. The Department of Corrections currently staffs institutional probation and parole officers at Montana State Prison and community corrections facilities as well as case managers at the state prisons who implement offender release plans to aid in offender reintegration into the community. The department has also developed a re-entry resource guide, available to staff, on the departments' intranet site. The resource guide contains information about available offender housing, treatment, and employment options.
2. The department assumes bill implementation would involve coordinating, encouraging, and identifying resources only to offenders that are still under the jurisdiction of the department.
